

A.Y. 2020-21 Teachers Feedback on Curriculum

Year of Joining the College

34 responses

Curriculum is revised from time to time with valuable input from industry

34 responses

The above graph highlights that 29.4% agree that curriculum is revised from time to time with valuable input from industry.

Curriculum meets ever changing needs and expectations of Society and Industry

34 responses

The above chart shows that 47.1% agree that curriculum meets ever changing needs and expectations of society and industry.

Curriculum designing and development is done in consultation with experts from industry
34 responses

From the above it can be inferred that majority of the teachers are neutral on the above statement.

Teachers have freedom to revise and modify curriculum to make it relevant to the present context
34 responses

Majority of the teachers feel that teachers doesn't have freedom to revised and modify curriculum to make it relevant to the present context.

Curriculum content and scope is finalized in consultation with curriculum boards of Higher Secondary and Post Graduate Studies
34 responses

From the above chart it can be seen that majority i.e. 41.2% are of the opinion that curriculum content and scope is finalized in consultation with curriculum boards of higher secondary and post graduates studies.

Curriculum encourages skill development
34 responses

The above pie diagram highlights that 50% of teachers agree that curriculum encourages skill development.

It provides exposure to field based studies, on the job training and life skills
34 responses

It can be seen from above chart that 50% of teachers are of the opinion that curriculum provides exposure to field based studies, on the job training and life skills.

It provides ample scope for learning beyond curriculum
34 responses

44.1% Teachers are of the opinion that curriculum provides ample scope for learning beyond curriculum

Syllabus and course content is made available on the college website to students

34 responses

Majority of the teachers agree to the statement that syllabus and course content is made available on the college website to students.

Curriculum is highly competitive and application oriented

34 responses

32.4% of the respondents feel that curriculum is not highly competitive and application oriented.

It enhances creativity and critical thinking in students

34 responses

From the above chart it can be observed that 38.2% of teachers are of the opinion that curriculum enhances creativity and critical thinking in students.

It prepares students for competitive examinations

34 responses

It can be inferred from the above chart that 41.2% of respondents are of the view that curriculum helps students for competitive examinations.

It promotes an overall personality development of students

34 responses

Suggestions:

Teachers have suggested that Curriculum must be continuously reviewed and updated, Syllabi and structures of a number of subjects need to be revamped on an urgent basis, Need to change according to requirements, Syllabus should be often change as the demand of profession and skill from firms and institutes, Need to have a more humane and practical based curriculum.

Students feedback on curriculum

Stream/Course

359 responses

Year of Admission

359 responses

Curriculum is not practical oriented

359 responses

42.3% of students are neutral on the above statement, while 24.5% feel that curriculum is not practical oriented.

It is outdated, needs complete revision in the light of present changes

359 responses

39.8% of students are of the opinion that curriculum is outdated and needs complete revision in the light of present changes.

Curriculum is linked with industry needs

359 responses

Majority of the respondents are not sure whether the curriculum is linked with industry needs or not.

It encourages skill development

359 responses

57.7% of students said that the present curriculum encourages skill development.

It provides exposure to field based studies, on the job training and life skills
359 responses

From the above chart it can be observed that majority of the students curriculum provides exposure to field based studies on the job training and life skills.

It provides ample scope for learning beyond curriculum
359 responses

The above pie diagram depicts that 52.1% of students feel that curriculum provides ample scope for leaning beyond curriculum.

Availability of syllabus and course content on the college website
359 responses

The above data reveals that 57.7% of students said that syllabus and course content is available on the college website.

It is highly competitive and application oriented
359 responses

43.5% of the students are of the opinion that the curriculum is highly competitive and application oriented.

It encourages value education through teaching-learning-process
359 responses

The above chart highlights that curriculum encourages value education through teaching learning process

It provides ample scope for self learning
359 responses

61% of students are of the opinion that the curriculum provides ample scope for self-learning.

It enhances creativity and critical thinking
359 responses

Majority of the students agree that curriculum helps to enhance creativity and critical thinking.

It is very interesting and challenging
359 responses

From the above diagram it can be inferred that majority of the students feel that curriculum is very interesting and challenging.

It prepares for competitive examinations
359 responses

48.7% of students said that the curriculum prepares for competitive examinations.

It promotes an overall personality development of an individual

359 responses

59.1% are of the opinion that the curriculum promotes an overall personality development of the individual.

Suggestions:

Learning by doing should be encouraged and focus should be on the development of life skills of an individual. Study tours to be organised for all round development of the student

Curriculum should consist of both practical and mental plus new and old forms should be taught. Students needs to be taught to deal with failure and success. A subject should be introduced which can guide on mental health issues.

Develop plans, methods, and processes, Education need to be such that it should be according to the interest of the students at the same time should bring out creativity and overall development of the students.

Outdated syllabus and it need to change.

Parents feedback on curriculum

Educational Qualification

218 responses

- Below S.S.C.
- S.S.C.
- H.S.S.C.
- Graduate
- Post Graduate
- VIII passed
- T. Y. B. A. B. Ed
- 7th

▲ 1/2 ▼

Occupation

218 responses

- Self-employed
- Government Job
- Private Job
- Housemaker
- Retired
- Student
- Labour
- Housewife

▲ 1/4 ▼

Year of admission of the student

218 responses

- 2016-17
- 2017-18
- 2018-19
- 2019-20

Present curriculum / syllabus promotes knowledge & wisdom

218 responses

56.9% of Parents are of the opinion that present curriculum promotes knowledge and wisdom.

Curriculum is relevant to the Industry (Employer form)

218 responses

45.9% of the respondents have are neutral on the above statement, whereas 42.2% agree that curriculum is relevant to the industry.

It inculcates values and life skills

218 responses

From the above chart it can be observed that 61.9% of the parents are of the opinion that the present curriculum inculcated values and life skills.

It leads to employment and employability of students
218 responses

Majority i.e. 61.9% of the parents feel that the curriculum taught leads to employment and employability of students.

It promotes common sense and discipline
218 responses

It can be depicted from the above chart that majority of the parents are of the opinion that the curriculum promotes sense and discipline among the students.

It promotes creativity and innovations
218 responses

The above diagram depicts that 57.3% of respondents agree that the curriculum helps to promote creativity and innovations.

It makes student independent and self confident
218 responses

It can be seen from the above analysis that majority of the parents said that curriculum makes student independent and self-confident.

It provides flexibility to learn beyond syllabus
218 responses

63.8% of parents are of the opinion that the curriculum provides flexibility to learn beyond syllabus.

It activates thinking process of the student
218 responses

The above analysis highlights that the curriculum activates thinking of the student.

It develops ability to take up self employment
218 responses

64.7% of the parents said that curriculum develops ability to take up self employment, whereas very few parents disagree with the above statement.

It promotes ability to convince others
218 responses

From the above chart it can be inferred that majority of the parents feel that the curriculum promotes ability to convince others.

It promotes good character and behavior
218 responses

It can be observed from the above chart that curriculum helps to promote good character and behaviour

It meets ever-changing needs of society and industry

218 responses

The above chart depicts that 58.7% of parents have said that ever changing needs of society and industry.

Syllabus is periodically revised/restructured as per the changing needs of the Industry

218 responses

39% of parents are neutral on the above statement, whereas 47.2% agree that syllabus is periodically revised as per the changing needs of the industry.

Content of syllabus is rich enough to train students

218 responses

51.4% of the parents are of the opinion that the content of syllabus is rich enough to train students.

Present curriculum reduces gap between what is being taught in Academic Institution and what is being expected from industry

218 responses

It can be observed from the above chart 45% of the parents feel that present curriculum reduces gap between what is being taught in academic institution and what is being expected from industry.

Suggestions:

Parents have suggested that Syllabus should be revised as per student's requirements and also Introduce such syllabus which will teach students about the values and intelligence required to live in the society.

Alumni feedback on curriculum

Educational Qualification

33 responses

Present Occupation

33 responses

Year of Passing Degree

33 responses

Curriculum addresses programme objective and learning outcomes

33 responses

it can be observed from the above analysis that 57.6% of the alumni feel that curriculum addresses program objective and learning outcomes.

It is too heavy and induces pressure

33 responses

It can be seen from the above chart that majority of the respondents are neutral on the above statement, whereas 33.3% agree that curriculum is too heavy and induces pressure.

Courses in the curriculum were structure and arranged properly

33 responses

It can be seen from the above analysis that 39.4% of alumni said that courses in the curriculum were structured and arranged properly.

Teaching strategies are stated in the curriculum for achieving learning outcomes
33 responses

The above chart depicts that 48.5% of alumni feel that teaching strategies are stated in the curriculum for achieving learning outcomes.

Curriculum was effective in developing analytical and problem solving skills
33 responses

The above analysis shows 51.5% of the alumni are of the opinion that curriculum was effective in developing analytical and problem-solving skills.

Curriculum was effective in developing communication skills
33 responses

69.7% of the alumni stated that the curriculum was effective in developing communication skills.

Curriculum inspired to become lifelong learner
33 responses

60.6% of the respondents are of the opinion that the curriculum inspired to become lifelong learners.

Curriculum is effective in imparting value education
33 responses

60.6% of alumni said that curriculum is effective in imparting value education, whereas 21.2% of them are neutral on the above statement.

Curriculum is effective in developing competitive spirit and abilities
33 responses

Most of the respondents are of the opinion that curriculum is effective in developing competitive spirit and abilities.

Curriculum is effective in meeting needs of Business enterprises

33 responses

It can be observed from the above analysis that 51.5% of alumni that curriculum is effective in meeting needs of business enterprise.

Curriculum is effective in developing all round personality development

33 responses

The above chart highlights that majority of the alumni is of the opinion that the curriculum is effective in developing all round personality development.

Curriculum is being upgraded from time to time as per the changing needs of corporate world

33 responses

The above chart highlights that 48.5% of the respondents said that curriculum is being upgraded from time to time as per changes in the corporate world.

Suggestions

Alumni suggested that Curriculum should be framed always in easiest and fair manner and Curriculum should focus all round personality development of a learner.