A brief write-up about your Event (in about 300 words) : The Department of Commerce, of Vidya Prabodhini College of Commerce, Education, Computer and Management Parvari - Goa, in association with Dhavrukh NGO, successfully concluded a meaningful social internship program, providing students with a valuable opportunity to gain practical experience in environmental and water conservation efforts. Over a period of 2 to 3 months, 25 students immersed themselves in fieldwork aimed at promoting ecological sustainability and community welfare. The internship was thoughtfully designed to bridge the gap between classroom knowledge and real-world challenges. Its key objectives included enhancing students' communication and teamwork skills, fostering a sense of social responsibility, and encouraging empathy by involving them in grassroots-level community initiatives. As part of the program, the students took part in a series of impactful activities such as tree plantation drives, groundwater recharging efforts, and the construction of contour trenches for land restoration and water retention. These hands-on experiences played a crucial role in cultivating environmental awareness and a commitment to social change among the participants. The program was guided by an experienced mentorship team from Dhavrukh NGO, including Raviraj Pednekar (Treasurer), Tushar Govekar (Secretary), and members Kalpesh Naik, Vasant Narulkar, and Uddesh Pednekar.
