A brief write-up about your Event (in about 300 words) :

Speaking is an art, and not everyone is naturally a good speaker. To build confidence and enhance speaking skills among students, the Communication Club is providing a platform for both students and staff by organizing a literary activity, the "Shravandhara" program, on the occasion of Shravan. This Shravandhara program will take place on 31st August 2024, at 2:00 PM in the college premises. Shravan is considered a divine month in Indian culture, and its significance is deeply rooted in our literature. To celebrate this, students and staff will recite poetry and speak on the topic. Additionally, a wallpaper titled "Shravandhara" will be inaugurated during the program.
