Objective of the Event	: 1. Provide a brief history of the NSS, its establishment, and its evolution over time. 2. Clarify the role of an NSS volunteer, including expectations for participation, commitment, and behavior. 3. Discuss the significance of special camps organized by NSS, which focus on specific themes like rural development, health and hygiene, and disaster management. 4. Emphasize the development of leadership skills through organizing and managing activities and working in teams. 5. Highlight the personal growth opportunities, such as increased self-confidence, empathy, and a sense of civic responsibility.

Outcome of the Event :

1. Volunteers gain a solid understanding of the NSS's mission, objectives, and the importance of community service in nation-building. 2. Volunteers are prepared to take on specific tasks, whether in organizing events, leading projects, or participating in community service activities. 3. Enhanced communication skills, enabling volunteers to interact effectively with community members, peers, and authorities. 4. A sense of belonging to the NSS community is fostered, encouraging volunteers to work collaboratively and support each other. 5. Students gain a deeper understanding and appreciation of the diverse cultures, traditions, and languages of India, fostering a sense of national unity.

A brief write-up about your Event (in about 300 words) :

The NSS Unit of the college is organizing a one day seminar for Newly registered NSS Volunteers of the college. The NSS (National Service Scheme) Volunteer orientation is a crucial step in preparing volunteers for their roles and responsibilities within the program. The orientation aims to introduce the volunteers to the NSS, its objectives, and the specific activities they will be involved in. We will be inviting two in-house resource person who have worked in the field and have been active NSS volunteers and Programme Officers themselves.

Reach of the Event : Local

Mode of the Event : Offline

Date of the Event : 2024-08-28 To 2024-08-28

No of Day(s) : one day

Venue : Fourth Floor

Objective of the Event : 1. Provide a brief history of the NSS, its establishment, and its evolution over time. 2. Clarify the role of an NSS volunteer, including expectations for participation, commitment, and behavior. 3. Discuss the significance of special camps organized by NSS, which focus on specific themes like rural development, health and hygiene, and disaster management. 4. Emphasize the development of leadership skills through organizing and managing activities and working in teams. 5. Highlight the personal growth opportunities, such as increased self-confidence, empathy, and a sense of civic responsibility.

Outcome of the Event : 1. Volunteers gain a solid understanding of the NSS's mission, objectives, and the importance of community service in nation-building. 2. Volunteers are prepared to take on specific tasks, whether in organizing events, leading projects, or participating in community service activities. 3. Enhanced communication skills, enabling volunteers to interact effectively with community members, peers, and authorities. 4. A sense of belonging to the NSS community is fostered, encouraging volunteers to work collaboratively and support each other. 5. Students gain a deeper understanding and appreciation of the diverse cultures, traditions, and languages of India, fostering a sense of national unity.

A brief write-up about your Event (in about 300 words) : The NSS Unit of the college is organizing a one day seminar for Newly registered NSS Volunteers of the college. The NSS (National Service Scheme) Volunteer orientation is a crucial step in preparing volunteers for their roles and responsibilities within the program. The orientation aims to introduce the volunteers to the NSS, its objectives, and the specific activities they will be involved in. We will be inviting two in-house resource person who have worked in the field and have been active NSS volunteers and Programme Officers themselves.
