Activity Type	:Workshops / Training Programmes
Reach of the Event	:State
Mode of the Event	Offline
Date of the Event	:2026-02-13 To2026-02-13
No of Day(s)	:one day
Objective of the Event	:1. students understand plot, characters, and structure. 2. Encourage students to find and develop their own writing style. 3. Build better vocabulary and language skills in Hindi. 4. Give students a platform to share their work and get feedback. 5. Introduce writing as a potential career in media or literature.

Outcome of the Event :

1. Students will be able to identify and apply the "Anatomy of a Story," including plot construction, character development, setting, and pacing. Enhanced Language Proficiency: Participants will demonstrate a more sophisticated use of Hindi vocabulary and grammar, transitioning from basic academic writing to more descriptive and evocative literary styles. Critical and Analytical Skills: Students will develop the ability to critically analyze existing short stories and provide constructive, professional feedback on their peers' work. 2. Through exercises like overcoming "writer's block," students will learn to think outside the box and resolve narrative inconsistencies. 3. Learners will have successfully drafted, refined, and potentially completed an original short story or a series of story scenes. 4. Students will gain a better understanding of career paths in literature, media, and publishing, as well as the importance of research in creative writing.
