A brief write-up about your Event (in about 300 words) :

The workshop titled “Know Your Food: Identifying Food Adulteration and Ensuring Food Safety” is being organized to create awareness among students and the local community about the growing issue of food adulteration and its impact on health. The session is being conducted in collaboration with the Food and Drugs

Administration, Goa and will be delivered by an expert resource person from the department. It will focus on identifying fake and adulterated food items using simple home-based and DIY detection methods, along with providing knowledge on food safety standards, consumer rights, and safe food practices in daily life. This programme is a community outreach initiative tied up with the National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of the college, wherein students and local residents from Porvorim will participate. The workshop aligns with SDG 3 (Good Health and Well-being) and aims to promote informed food choices, public awareness, and healthier lifestyles.

The Department of Education, Vidya Prabodhini College, Porvorim-Goa, successfully organized a Food Safety Awareness Workshop on "Detecting Food Adulteration" on 20th March 2026. 🍷

With expert insights from Mrs. Nousin Mulla (Food Safety Officer) and Ms. Mayuri Shetgaonkar (Microbiologist), students learned simple home-based techniques to detect food adulteration using everyday items.

Aligned with 🌍 SDG 3: Good Health & Well-being and SDG 12: Responsible Consumption, the session empowered students to make safer and healthier food choices.

🌟 Knowledge today for a healthier tomorrow!
