Activity Proposal

Participation/Organization	:Organization
Event Id	:P2514380
Event Name	:Sutrasanchalan Certificate Course
Academic Year	:2025-26
Activity Type	:Certificate Courses
Reach of the Event	:Local
Mode of the Event	Hybrid
Date of the Event	:2025-09-04 To2025-09-20
No of Day(s)	:Two Weeks
Objective of the Event	:The primary objective of Sutrasanchalan or anchoring, is to ensure the smooth and successful execution of a program by acting as a skilled presenter who guides the audience, connects various segments, and maintains the event's overall flow and professionalism. Key goals include engaging the audience, introducing guests, managing time effectively, maintaining the event's dignity, and concluding it gracefully.

Outcome of the Event :

Improved Public Speaking & Communication Skills: Participating in an anchoring event requires students to speak clearly and confidently in front of an audience, which helps them develop essential communication abilities. Increased Confidence & Self-Esteem: Successfully presenting themselves and guiding an event builds their self-assurance and makes them feel more comfortable in public settings. Enhanced Understanding of National Values: Events centered around national holidays, such as Republic Day or Independence Day, instill a sense of patriotism, respect for national symbols, and an appreciation for the country's history and constitution. Fostering Teamwork & Collaboration: Preparing and executing an anchoring script often involves working with other students, teachers, and event organizers, which promotes collaboration and collective effort. Creative Expression & Innovation: Students have the opportunity to use creative language and express their ideas in a formal yet engaging manner, contributing to their creative growth. Community & Belonging: Sutrasanchalan events bring the school community together, allowing students to feel a greater connection to their school and their peers.
