Outcome of the Event :

At the end of the workshop, the participants will be able to: 1.Map CO with Program Outcomes (PO) using standard mapping matrices. 2. Develop rubrics aligned with HO and CO for theory and practical evaluation. 3. Prepare outcome-based assessment tools suitable for internal and external examinations.

A brief write-up about your Event (in about 300 words) :

The IQAC of Vidya Prabodhini College proposes to organize a one-day workshop on Outcome-Based Education (OBE) with a focus on mapping Higher-order Outcomes (HO), Course Outcomes (CO), and Program Outcomes (PO) with examination design and rubrics. The workshop is intended to provide faculty members with a clear and practical understanding of how learning outcomes can be effectively translated into teaching, learning, and evaluation practices. The workshop will emphasize hands-on training in framing higher-order outcomes, preparing HO-CO-PO mapping matrices, designing outcome-based question papers, and developing rubrics for fair and transparent assessment. By bridging the gap between outcome planning and assessment, the programme aims to promote consistency and quality in academic evaluation across departments.

A brief write-up about your Event (in about 300 words) : The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), in collaboration with the Department of Commerce and the Examination Cell of Vidya Prabodhini College of Commerce, Education, Computer and Management, Parvari-Goa, successfully organized a one-day workshop titled "From Learning Outcomes to Assessment: Practical Mapping of POs and COs" at the College Board Room. The primary objective of the workshop was to enhance the faculty's understanding of Outcome-Based Education (OBE) and to provide hands-on training regarding the systematic implementation of Programme Outcomes (POs) and Course Outcomes (COs). Dr. Vinayak More, Assistant Professor of Education from GVM's College, served as the resource person for the session. Known for his rich academic experience, Dr. More delivered a highly informative session, sharing practical insights that bridged the gap between theoretical learning outcomes and actual assessment methods. The session proved to be a fruitful exercise for the Commerce faculty. It clarified the practical aspects of mapping outcomes to assessment, paving the way for a more robust implementation of the OBE framework in the college's teaching-learning processes. The workshop was organized by the college IQAC under the guidance of Dr. Arun R. Marathe, Coordinator of IQAC and HoD of B.Com Programme, along with the significant support from Shri. Rudresh Mhamal, Examination Committee Coordinator. Vice Principal Dr. Ujvala Hanjunker made the introductory remarks at the beginning of the workshop. The event concluded with an acknowledgment of the active participation of the faculty members by Shri. Darshan Gaonkar, Assistant Professor in Commerce, marking a significant step forward in the college's academic quality enhancement initiatives.
