Objective of the Event	:To develop effective communication and interpersonal skills among students. To enhance decision-making and problem-solving abilities. To promote emotional intelligence and stress management techniques. To foster self-awareness and confidence. To encourage positive attitude and leadership qualities.

Outcome of the Event :

Improved communication and interpersonal relationships among students. Better stress management and emotional regulation skills. Increased self-confidence and leadership abilities. Development of responsible and socially aware individuals.

A brief write-up about your Event (in about 300 words) :

In today's rapidly changing world, academic knowledge alone is not sufficient for holistic development. Students need essential life competencies such as communication skills, emotional intelligence, stress management, leadership, decision-making ability, and interpersonal skills to succeed in personal and professional life. The proposed workshop on “Life Skills” aims to empower students by equipping them with practical tools and strategies for effective living. Conducting the workshop in the Marathi language will ensure better understanding, participation, and engagement among students.
