vpc_goa_ Career Clarity – An Interactive Session on Discovering Opportunities and Direction ✨🎯

The Department of Education successfully conducted an insightful session on 19th February 2026 at the Board Room.

We were privileged to have Shri Rajendra L. Bhobe, Secretary of Prabodhan Education Society, Porvorim, as the Resource Person. Through his valuable guidance and practical insights, students gained a clearer perspective on career opportunities and the direction they should pursue.

The session was engaging, motivating, and truly empowering for all participants. 🌟

A brief write-up about your Event (in about 300 words) : The resource person for the session was Shri. Rajendra Bhobe sir who had explained about different competitive exams to the students. Sir had explained what are future directions that a teacher educator can opt for. Sir had also explained what efforts and struggles an individual student has to take to reach to their goal. Also mentioned about the different competitive exams that are applicable for future teachers other than the Teachers Eligibility tests. This has given the students a new insights and developed their ideas about what else they can do in different sectors other than the teaching. Last but not the least, Bhobe sir advised them not to remain dependent only on the one profession , but try to seek different opportunities in different fields.
