Sir,

On the occasion of Shivrajyabhishek Din (Coronation of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj-27th June 2026 as per Hindu Tithi), the Department of Archaeology, Government of Goa in collaboration with Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts (IGNCA), Regional Centre-Goa, Ministry of Culture, Government of India is organizing a three day exhibition titled "Historical Arms and Armour" at Ravindra Bhavan-Sankhali during 26th-28th June 2026 from 09:30 AM to 07:00 PM.

The artifacts for the exhibition are being provided by the CORE Heritage, Pune, which has a collection of approximately 2000 historical objects dating from the 16th-18th Century AD. The collection also features objects from the 1857 uprising for Indian National Freedom Struggle. The exhibition will showcase a unique collection of Portuguese-era arms and armour and Shivaji Maharaj-era arms and armour. Visitors will get an opportunity to learn about the history, craftsmanship, and military traditions of these periods. A special attraction of the exhibition will be a touch and feel table of authentic replica objects.

The exhibition would be inaugurated by Dr. Pramod Sawant, Honorable Chief Minister of Goa and Minister for Archaeology, Government of Goa on 26th June 2026 at 10:00AM at Ravindra Bhavan-Sankhali. In this regard, I kindly request you to encourage the students and teachers of various educational institutions to actively participate in this exhibition and learn about the history of this region with the help of archaeological evidence being displayed at the exhibition.

Looking forward to your support and cooperation in making this exhibition a grand success.

Thanks and Regards

Any Other Suggestion

It could have been much better if there was someone to explain and give information about the exhibition and the tools and arms and armours in brief.

They could specify the type of ammunities. Also there could be guide to explain about and there could be more historical items on display

The exhibition was well-organized. More information boards, live demonstrations, and additional historical artefacts could make it even more interesting. Excellent exhibition. Please organize more such educational exhibition in future.

"Historical Arms and Armour" Exhibition was informative and interesting. It helped us learn about ancient weapons and their role in history.

Overall experience of the exhibition was very informative. The section where we could hold the weapons arms and armour was fun
