A brief write-up about the Event (in about 300 words):

The Department of education, in collaboration with the department of fine arts, had organized a workshop on blackboard writing skills on Friday 25th August 2023 from 8.45 am onwards in class T-11. The blackboard is used to provide clarity on the subject being taught in the class and it provides a visual representation for students. Using a blackboard would make it easier for students to capture the topic covered in a class. The blackboard is a great tool for presenting the main points of a topic. Charts, graphs, tables, calculations, etc. The objective of this workshop was to improve the handwriting of the students by participating in a writing program that would enhance their handwriting skills. Also, students will write clearly and neatly on the board and will give meaningful and interesting lessons using a chalk board.

Dr. Anil Thosare, Vice principal and HOD of Education guided the students about the importance of blackboard writing skills. He motivated the students to practice daily on the board to improve their handwriting. Ms. Pradnya Tari, Assistant Professor in Education and Mr.

Kalidas Mhamal, Assistant Professor of Fine Arts, taught the different methods and techniques of the blackboard skill. This workshop was only for the students of fourth year and third year B.A.B.ED.

Konkani Methodology students, in which a total of 30 students participated. Ms.

Pradnya Tari was the coordinator, and the co-T-11 coordinator was Mr. Kalidas Mhamal.
