Report

Vidya Prabodhini college in collaboration with Goa Waste Management Corporation organised a field visit on 08th February 2019. Altogether 100 students studying in F.Y.B.A.B.Ed attended this field visit. They were accompanied by Asst.Prof Santoshi Narvencar and Asst. Prof. Yogita Gauns from Vidya Prabodhini College. Mr. Siddhant Dessai, Mr. Saiel Kamat from GWMC guided the students on various aspects towards ZERO WASTE. At first students visited Home Science College to understand the concept of 4-way segregation of waste and usage of pet bottles as vases for potted plant. Next they were taken to Mall De Goa to analyse the varied packaging materials that add to waste generation. Then the students visited the Hindustan Waste Treatment Plant at Saligao. Here they saw how garbage was treated to get useful final products like biogas for electricity, organic waste for compost and sewage water purification for non-potable purpose. Yet another attraction at Waste treatment plant was the furniture made using special material obtained from tetrapacks retrieved from garbage dumps.. This visit which commenced at 9.00 am ended at 4.30 pm enriching the knowledge of the students regarding the transformation of the waste into wealth due to the hard efforts of the team at GWMC.
