National Mathematics Day
(22nd December 2020)

The Department of Mathematics of our college, celebrated the National Mathematics Day on 22nd December 2020. The department conducted an Essay Writing Competition for all the students of our college with the topic " Mathematics and Me: Then, Now and Forever". Many students participated in the competition and wrote about how mathematics is playing an important role in their life, and also how they struggled in the subject during curriculum.

The students were given 2 days time to submit their essays via the google form provided to them in their respective class whatsapp group and the competition was judged by Miss Nikita Shirodkar, Assistant Professor, Department of English from our college.

The first place was won by Miss Riya Pednekar from SY BCom, second place was won by Mast. Jayesh Shetkar from TY BCom and third place was won by Miss Shambhavi Manerkar from FY BCom.
