Vidya Prabodhini College holds workshop on gender sensitisation

NT KURIOCITY

The Gender Champion Club of Vidya Prabodhini College organised a workshop on 'Gender Sensitisation' for the fourth year BA BEd students and club members. Principal, M R Patil welcomed the participants. Chief guest for the workshop was general manager of Goa Industrial Development Corporation (GIDC), Government of Goa, Ajay Gaude. A total of 50 students participated in the workshop.

In his address Gaude sensitised students on various issues like gender stereotypes, gender attributes, gender privilege, gender and media, and gender and culture. He gave many examples of how to break the gender barriers ascribed by tradition and culture.

Assistant professor at VM Salgaocar Law College, Bhakti Naik was the resource person for the session on 'Violence Against Women.' Naik shared the data acquired by the National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB) from 2010 to 2016 on rape, sexual harassment, kidnapping and abduction and cruelty. She also enlightened students on constitutional article 14, 15, and 15(c), namely, Right to Equality, Protection Against Women and Special Provisions in favour of women. She concluded the session by announcing the need for unified action.
