A brief write-up about the Event (in about 300 words):

Vidya Prabodhini College of Commerce, Education, Computer, and Management paid homage to the iconic Maratha warrior king and national icon, Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, and celebrated Shiv Jayanti with great enthusiasm and fervour, by organising a seminar on the topic, "Shivrai and Today's Youth" by noted speaker, Advocate Shivaji Dessai. The seminar, organized by VPC Study Circle in association with Department of Fine Arts and Performing Arts also had a presentation by Shri. Rahul Gawas on the topic, "Shivaji Maharaj and Spatial Construct in Administration and Defence". The seminar began with a welcome address by Shri. Sanjay Walavalkar, Chairman of Prabodhan Education Society, while Dr. Anil Thosare, Vice Principal and HoD of the Dept of Education, introduced the Chief Guest. Co-ordinator of the programme, Shri. Kedarnath Tadkod, Asst. Professor in English, and co-coordinator Ms. Sweta Bhagat, Asst. Professor in Economics, proposed the vote of thanks, while the event was compered by Ms. Sneha Morajkar, Asst. Professor in Marathi. Over 69 students and 14 teaching and non-teaching faculty members attended the seminar.

Earlier in the day, the staff and students paid floral tributes to a bust of the venerated Chhatrapati Shivaji maharaj and performed Shivrai stuti Vandana, led by Shri. Rohit Naik, Assistant Professor in Performing Arts and Shri. Vijay Kudnekar, LDC. The celebration showcased the college's commitment to promoting historical awareness and cultural significance, as well as fostering a sense of pride and respect for the revered figure of Shivaji Maharaj.
