

PUBLICATION OF THIRD YEAR PROJECTS AS A BOOK WITH ISBN

About the Scheme:

The college, in line with its motto: “College to Village and Campus to Community”, has aimed to execute community-focused and society-centric projects at the third year of B.A.B.Ed. and B.Com. programmes. This scheme is therefore aimed as an effort to make the documentations, findings, observations and suggestions in these projects comprehensible to the general populace. Along with, the scheme is also expected to help cultivate a rich research culture in the students of the college.

Under the scheme, one project from each programme (one from B.A.B.Ed and one from B.Com) will be selected through a review process and will be published as a book with an ISBN, for which the college will bear the expenses. Upon publication, the guide will be the editor of the book along with ₹5000/- as the reward and the research students will be the authors of the book.

Eligibility:

Students of B.Com. and B.A.B.Ed., (and their guides) of Vidya Prabodhini College, Parvari, Goa, who have submitted third year dissertations in the academic years 2021-22, 2022-23, and 2023-24 are eligible for the scheme.

Application and Review Process:

- a) The College Research and Development Cell will call for proposals via a notice.
- b) Interested faculty guide along with students will submit a maximum of two projects from the academic years 2021-22, 2022-23, and 2023-24.
- c) Submitted projects will go through a review process for which a Scrutiny and Selection Committee (SSC), comprising of three subject experts will be appointed for shortlisting and selection of the projects.
- d) On finalization of the two projects for publication, the students and the guide will get a 3-month period to submit their project for publication in a book form along with a plagiarism report.

- e) The copyrights and sale rights of the book will be with the college.
- f) Signing of the copyright form: The teacher guide of the selected projects are required to sign a copyright form.
- g) The author(s) are to follow APA 9th Edition (or MLA 9th Edition for languages) guidelines for formatting and referencing of the manuscript.